10. CHANGE IN NATURE OF BUSINESS

The Financial Year 2025-26 was a commendable year for the Company, with Revenue from Operations of Rs. 10,724,500/-. Sama Digital Foundation is driven by a simple purpose: giving retired corporate laptops a second life in the hands of women and young people who have no device of their own. So far, more than 18,000 laptops have reached over 3.5 lakh people across 22 states.

During the year, the Company worked to widen access to devices and to support digital learning, skills development and opportunities in underserved communities. Between 31st March 2025 and 31st March 2026, it directly distributed 12,027 laptops to 72 NGOs. The Build for Good hackathon was organised, and 79 MacBook laptops were given to its finalists.

The Company also launched Sama Saathi Kendras, five village-level centres run by local women offering digital and government services. Villagers who once travelled 8-10 km and lost a day's wages for such services can now access them close to home, while the women who run the centres earn a sustainable livelihood. Your Directors foresee a bright future for the Company.

11. STATUTORY AUDITOR
